

Tenali Raman - Treasure in Well Story

One day, when Tenali Raman and his wife were resting at home, they heard some leaves rustle in their garden. He knew it was the thieves and they were planning to rob his house.

Tenali Raman thought of a plan. He shouted to his wife, "I heard that there are some notorious thieves on the loose in our neighbourhood. So, let us hide all the jewels and money we have in the well".

Later, he came out with his wife to drop a big box into the well and went inside the house. They both pretended to sleep. The thieves in the garden saw this and were overjoyed.

They started drawing the water out of the well. They thought of emptying the well and getting the treasure. By daybreak, they got the box.

They were shocked and angry to see just some stones in the box. They understood that Tenali Raman planned to make them Fool.

Then, Tenali Rama came to the thieves and offered to pay money for watering his garden all night.

Hearing this, the thieves were very ashamed and asked for forgiveness. They promised never to rob anyone again. Tenali Raman forgave them.
